Paying it Forward Saves Lives... Austin Airwaves Donates Funds to Get Hurricane-Damaged WHIV Back on the Air

On August 29, 2020, Hurricane Ida hit Louisiana. Landing on the 16th anniversary of Hurricane Katrina, the category-4 storm stands as the second most damaging to have ever made landfall in the state. While four FCC emergency stations remained on air, only those with hand-crank radios could hear them. All other stations, WHIV among them, had been silenced...

Then, Jim Ellinger called...

Interview with Ukraine Parliament Member in AudioPort

Yesterday, The Deep Dive's Nick Espinosa did an interview with Ukraine Parliament Member Inna Sovsun. She spoke on the current situation in Ukraine, her personal experience, some local stories of bravery and devastation, and what Ukrainians are asking of supporters.

Nick has uploaded this interview to the Actuality section of AudioPort. It is also on an early release of Sprouts, and Nick's show, The Deep Dive.

The interview is just under 20 minutes.

Fernando Velázquez, in Memorium

It is with our deepest sorrow that we inform you that on Saturday, February 12 in the afternoon, Fernando Velázquez, director of Informativo Pacífica and the most veteran of KPFK's Spanish-language programmers, "passed on to a better life."

Fernando was a very generous compañero and trained a lot of volunteers at KPFK radio in Los Angeles, CA.
