An RNC Field Guide from Inside and Outside the Armed Compound

...I came [to the RNC] as the executive producer of Pacifica Radio Network's We Decide: America at the Crossroads 2024, a community based reporting project I created that's been funded by some of the nation's

The concept, inspired by my reporting on the City of Trenton, that lies beyond the State Capitol Complex, was to cover the national political conventions through the context and experience of the neighborhoods surrounding these multi-million dollar spectacles.

Might the duality in our state, where lawmakers spent $300 million on rehabbing their gold dome Capitol, while the City of Trenton struggled, extend to the convention host cities of Milwaukee and Chicago and the nation?

In March 2017, KLEK-LP received a donation of $25,738 from First National Bank in Paragould/Jonesboro, Arkansas to build a 100 foot self supporting tower. Information on our Funding Prospectus and Stat Sheet played a

Access to internet and energy is more metered than that of major cities, with hard caps on the amount of gigabytes available per month or couple watt, around ten times that of those living in the continental United States. Costs for running radio stations are frequently a logistical issue. This is doubly the case when dealing with repair and equipment costs on top of high baseline electrical charges.

major role in the decision of the bank to fund our tower project. "Creating a Funding Prospectus and Stat Sheet" can show you how you can leverage the story of your station as well as collect and use data to help convince underwriters to support your major station projects.

Letters from an American

Heather Cox Richardson's Letters from an American is a chronicle of today's recordings of mostly popular music from the first half of the 20th century - in either 78-RPM or cylinder format, and with the pronounced crackling surface noise of authenticity.

Produced and hosted by Jane Lanctot

Portugal and Cape Verde. From Tango to Flamenco and all Latinx music in between.

The show explores the native instruments, languages and traditions played in 22 countries and one territory.

Produced and hosted by Mariano Vera, former art and literature critic in La Prensa Buenos Aires and National Public Radio, Argentina.

political landscape. You can't get a grip on today's politics without an outline of America's Constitution, and laws, and the economy, and social customs.

Richardson's commentary explores what it means, and what it has meant, to be an American.

Hosted by Heather Cox Richardson. Recorded in Dedham, MA.
