

August Newsletter 2024

Pacifica Network Welcomes KCXU

Broadcasting from 'De Heart' of San Jose, California, Pacifica Network is happy to welcome KCXU to the network family.

KCXU's promotes diverse community voices. Some of the shows featured on KCXU:

All Tribes - Good Vibes, Unity Mental Health, The Dream Journal, and State of Mind.

The station manager of KCXU is Manu Martinez.

Emergency Situations

Round-Table August:

Jim Ellinger of Austin Airwaves was a lead advocate for “AstroDome Radio” in Houston after Hurricane Katrina hit in 2005. He shares his story and advocacy for emergency FCC licences. Bennett Kobb shares his perspective from his time working at FEMA.

Bonus Round-Table: Managing a Newsroom

Round-Table August:

What does it take to have a newsroom? Find answers here from four radio stations about starting out, training people, communicating a mission, monitoring content, production decisions, news format, and tricks of the trade.

With Robert Hennelly (WBAI NY), Chali Pittman (WORT WI), Kathleen Murray (WSLR FL), Althea Billings (KBOO OR), & Don Merrill (KBOO OR).

New in AudioPort

New to AudioPort!

New to AudioPort!
Halfway to Jackson

New to AudioPort!
Listen & Be Heard

Cruisin' the Decades

Hour

Cruisin' The Decades plays one song per decade from the 1920's to the 2020's, shining a spotlight on several genres of music, while focusing on the history, technology of recording, and evolution of popular music from yesterday to today.

It's an audio time machine; a journey through recorded popular music history!

Hosted by independent producer Brad Savage in Akron Ohio. Originally produced for WAPS radio.

Hour

Now in its 7th Season.

Halfway to Jackson is a musical journey through Roots-Rock & Americana music, with tons of tidbits & inside takes about the musical styles. Listen to the history of the genres, and discover new & up-and-coming artists in the field.

Produced by Jackson Mckissick & Andru Bemis at WBDY in Binghamton, NY.

Hour

The Listen & Be Heard Radio Show is primarily for readers and writers, and in general to promote local culture everywhere.

This is a platform for in-depth conversations with authors about new books that we've read and want to talk about, about the craft and trade of writing and some of the challenges and joys of writing and speaking. Listen & Be Heard has its roots in poetry, storytelling and open mics, so you can also expect to hear some spoken word every week.

Produced and hosted by Martha Cinader & Tony Robles for WLBH radio in Greenville, SC.

Pacifica Network

816 Clark Ave, 50010, Ames

All logos used with permission of producer creative commons photo of emerson radio

This email was sent to {{contact.EMAIL}}

You've received this email because you've subscribed to our newsletter.

Cruisin' the Decades logo used with permission of Brad Savage

Unsubscribe

